

D156 Jack Lowrey Collection – Waterside Workers Federation

History	Jack Lowrey was a long time resident of Wollongong and a former waterside worker at Port Kembla. During his working life, he was an active member of the Waterside Workers' Federation and served as a delegate for many years. Among his other activities, Jack Lowrey was a member of the South Coast May Day Committee and of the Wollongong Workers' Club.
Record Summary	Minutes: Waterside Workers' Federation (Port Kembla Branch), Women's Committee. 1955-68. Waterside Workers' Federation (Port Kembla Branch), Delegates' Association. 1960-74.
Date	1955-83
Quantity	10cm. Banner.
Description	Inventory available.
Access	Available for reference.
Accessioned	14 January 1985
Listed	6 September 2001
RAAM No.	989

D156 Jack Lowrey Collection – Waterside Workers Federation

Series

- 1 Waterside Workers' Federation (Port Kembla Branch), Women's Committee.
 1. Minutes. 20 July 1955 - 24 Jul 1963.
 2. Minutes. 12 November 1963 - 5 August 1968 (includes Constitution).

- 2 Waterside Workers' Federation (Port Kembla Branch), Delegates Association.
 1. Minutes. 11 September 1960 - January 1966. (includes income and expenditure details 1962-66)
 2. Minutes. 1 March 1966 - 1 October 1974.

- 3 South Coast May Day Committee.
 1. Programmes. 1961, 1963-66, 1968-69, 1977, 1980, 1982.
 2. May Queen Competition tickets. 1968, 1974-84
 3. Posters. 1967, 1969

- 4 Wollongong Workers' Club.
 1. Invitation card to official opening 18 September 1948.
 2. Official Journal 1972, 1973.
 3. Photograph. Foundation Committee 1948.

- 5 Programme - Vera Selway Festival of Sport, 22 August 1958

- 6 Waterside Workers' Federation Banner