Creator: Frederick William Draper 1823- 1889

Historical Note: F.W. Draper was a Church Warden at the Emmanuel Church of England in Clifton and also at St Augustines at Bulli. He was in the Good-Templar society as well. He was well read and was an Insurance agent and Clerk and always kept diaries of his life. Only one copy of a diary remains, 1886. In it he recorded birthdays, anniversaries etc, plus gossip and news of the area. Also it appears that he kept a log of all ships that arrived at the jetty at Coalcliff and the tonnage loaded. He may have been in employ of the company. This collection comprises a transcribed diary of Frederick William Draper
