Graduate School of Business
AUGUST 2007

What’s new?
55 new books were purchased last month for the Graduate School of Business. To view the titles select the New books link on the Library’s homepage at www.library.uow.edu.au

Try the NEW database EBSCO Megafile
The Library is currently trialling EBSCO Megafile. It can be accessed from the Databases page under Trials.

This database is made up of a suite of research databases including Business Source Premier. This is the industry’s most used business research database providing the full text for more than 2,300 journals going back to 1965 with searchable cited references back as far as 1998. Its full text coverage includes marketing, management, MIS, POM, accounting, finance and economics. Additional full text, non-journal content includes market research reports, industry reports, country reports, company profiles and SWOT analyses.

Additional business databases can be found on the Databases page under the By Faculty link on the Library website.

E-books for the Graduate School of Business
Is the book you want out on loan? Why not try an e-book? A number of titles are available, for instance:

Title: International logistics
Author: Donald F. Wood et al.
Publisher: New York : AMACOM, c2002

To find similar material use the Catalogue Keyword search function. Type in your keywords, eg ‘logistic*’ and ‘business’, and select ‘EBOOK’ from the dropdown menu beside Material Type. By using the truncation symbol * you will widen your search and find entries which may include the words logistic, logistical or logistics.

Hints and tips
Extend your Library research skills by working through the online tutorial Research Edge. It is an interactive tutorial that you can use to improve your research and information retrieval skills. Work through the whole tutorial or select the modules that are most relevant to you.
