UOW Reflects on the Great War
Weekdays 9am - 5pm, 25 August - 3 October 2014

Special Topic Presentations:

1pm August 27: Conscription Campaign: Propaganda and Oppositions
Dr. Glenn Mitchell, Senior Lecturer, School of Humanities and Social Enquiry, UOW

1pm September 3: UOW Study Tours - Gallipoli and the Western Front
Associate Professor John McQuilton, School of Humanities and Social Enquiry, UOW

1pm September 10: Aboriginals in the First AIF - A Secret History
Gary Oakley, Indigenous Liaison Officer, Australian War Memorial

1pm September 17: The Illawarra Remembers - Panel Discussion
Terry Bugg, Illawarra Family History Group & Illawarra Remembers Coordinator
Marisa O’Connor, Wollongong City Library
Susan Jones, UOW Archives

1pm September 24: Gallipoli on the Home Front
Dr. Michael Molkentin, Shellharbour Anglican College and UNSW, Canberra

1pm September 30: ANZAC: The Birth? Or Death of a Nation?
Dr. Georgine Clarsen, Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Law, Humanities and the Arts, UOW

12.30pm October 1: Letters: In collaboration with UOW Creative Arts, live readings of correspondence between soldiers and their families during World War I

1pm October 1: The Keiraville Honour Board - A Community Impact Case Study
Dr. Jen Roberts, Associate Lecturer, UOW

1pm October 3: Collections and Personal Reflections
John Shipp, Illawarra Historical Society and Illawarra Museum