

Answer:

Lexis.com

An international database valuable for some full text unreported cases from ACT, NSW, Tas and Vic as well as Federal Court and High Court. Fulltext. For tips on how to use this see the Lexis.com database guide

LexisNexis AU:CaseBase

Includes case notes for unreported cases for most Australian jurisdictions.

TIP:

- At LexisNexis AU under Quick Find type case name
- Highlight CaseBase Cases
- For further tips see Help top right

Legal Online: FirstPoint

Case summaries for unreported cases for most Australian jurisdictions.

TIP:

- Library homepage> click Databases>click Law>
- Click on Lawbook Co Online
- Click FirstPoint
- Click Show More Search Fields
- Use the appropriate fields
- Click Unreported

Legal Online: Unreported Judgments

Full text of unreported cases from a range of Australian courts inc. High Court (1976, 1995+), Federal Court (1977-78, 1984, 1986, 1995+), Industrial Relations Court (1995+), Family Court (1995+) and various NSW Courts inc Supreme Court.

Austlii

This is a publicly accessible site produced by the Australasian Legal Information Institute (a joint facility of UTS and UNSW.) Contains some popular names. The full text of older cases may not be available.

TIP: Click Advanced Search and then select the appropriate case law databases.