

Answer:

3a. Textbooks UOW Library Catalogue

Use a Keyword search on the catalogue to find textbooks on torts. These books will include relevant cases.

3b. You may need to use a combination of hard copy and electronic resources depending on the comprehensiveness of the search and the date of the case(s):

- Australian Torts Reports (1984-2001) (CCH hard copy)
- Australian Torts Cases \(1998+\) (CCH Online) - UOW students and staff only.

TIP:

- At CCH Online homepage scroll and click Torts Law Library in left window
- Click Australian Torts Cases in right window.
- UOW students and staff only.

3c. Other cases may be found in Legal Online: FirstPoint, LexisNexis AU:CasesBase Cases and AustLII

TIP:

- At LexisNexis AU homepage under My Sources scroll down to CaseBase Journal Articles, click Search
- If Search is chosen in the search box type party name/s