

Answer:

AustLII Good for unreported judgments.

LAWLEX UOW students and staff only. Recommended database for most aspects of legislation. Directs you to the most authoritative database which is often the most up-to-date as well.

CCH Online: Torts What's new

- At CCH Online homepage, from left frame scroll & click Torts Law Library
- Click What's new in right window.
- UOW students and staff only.

CCH Online: Torts Law Library

CCH Torts Commentary has a section on new developments. CCH Torts Legislation and Torts Cases are also good sources of current information.

Legal Online: FirstPoint

Listing and summary of recent cases and legislation by subject in Online Commentaries.

LexisNexis AU: Australian Current Law Reporter

A current awareness resource providing access to recent development by subject. Updates Halsbury's Laws of Australia.

- At LexisNexis AU homepage under My Sources scroll to Australian Current Law Reporter click Search
- In Search box type keywords
- UOW students and staff only

AustLII a site produced by the Australasian Legal Information Institute (UTS and UNSW). Often has cases loaded within 24 hours.

LAWLEX UOW students and staff only. Recommended database for most aspects of legislation. Directs you to the most authoritative database which is often the most up-to-date as well.

CCH Online: Torts Law Library

CCH Torts Commentary has a section on new developments. CCH Torts Legislation and Torts Cases are also good sources of current information.

Legal Online: FirstPoint

Listing and summary of recent cases and legislation by subject. Updates the Australian Digest.