Creator: New South Wales (N.S.W.) Teachers’ Federation

Historical Note: The first official meeting of the N.S.W. Teachers’ Federation was held on 15 Mar 1919. The Federation arose out of the need for a unified, state-wide organisation for the prosecution of industrial matters. Previously several teacher associations, including the N.S.W. Public School Teacher’ Association, existed but were largely formed for the pursuit of professional knowledge and ideas. The Federation is primarily concerned with the industrial conditions of teachers employed in schools conducted by the N.S.W. State Government. This collection comprises records of the New South Wales (N.S.W.) Teachers’ Federation.
