D98  John Broomhall – Wollongong City Council

History

John Broomhall was Illawarra Community Arts Officer from 1976-79. The community arts programme was established in June 1976 through a grant to the Illawarra Regional Organisation of Councils from the Australia Council. The programme also receives funding from the Wollongong, Kiama and Shellharbour Councils.

The aims of the programme include the heightening of local community pride and identity and the promotion of the arts and their facilities.
