

Tertangala (UOW Student Magazine)

- Historical Note: Tertangala is the University of Wollongong student newspaper (The word Tertangala being Aboriginal for 'smoke signal').
The University Archives holds a near complete run of issues of Tertangala since its first publication in 1962.
Also held are copies of assorted student publications such as Angala (newsletter of the Christian Society), the Alternate Handbook (orientation guide) and various other newsletters and student election leaflets.
These publications provide a rich source of information on the history of student life at the Wollongong campus.
- Date Range: 1962+
- Access Conditions: Available for reference. Contact the Archives in advance to arrange access.
- Note: The listing is arranged chronologically. Details of prominent cover headlines or themes of individual issues are noted where known.
Hard copy originals or photocopies of most listed issues are held in the University Archives (UOWA). Where a copy is only held elsewhere then the location is given (either at the National Library of Australia, Canberra, or the Mitchell Library - NSW State Library, Sydney).

Online fulltext access to pdf copies of Tertangala issues from selected recent years is available on the Wollongong Undergraduate Students' Association (WUSA) web site.
- Inventory: Last updated 2 December 2011 (Note: this inventory is usually updated each quarter - for details of any later issues held contact the Archives).
